

TERRAN DAWN RESEARCH

Sources, what I created myself, and tables of specific sources within categories.

Sources

Primary

- Supplement 10: Solomani Rim - 3rd Imp.
- Gurps Rim of Fire: campaign guide, 3rd Imp.
- Gurps Interstellar Wars: pre 2nd Imperium campaign (history, worlds, past ships, worlds, maps, past corporations, past governments)
- CT Alien Module 6: Solomani.
- Traveller wiki (the website)
- DonM's Integrated Traveller Timeline

Librarys

- DGP's Solomani and Aslan supplement.
- Library Data Supplements 8 & 11 (other sources more updated)
- Gurps Traveller core book (for the large library)
MT Imperial Encyclopedia Library Data (more updated than Supp 8/11?)
- Gateway University Library (website of library data)

Aliens

- Alien Module 1: Aslan - some history correlates with the Rim
- Alien Module 7: Hivers - some history correlates with the Rim
- Gurps Alien Races 3: Hivers included (the race, history)
- Gurps Alien Races 2: Aslan included (the race, history, locs in the Rim)
- Gurps Humaniti (just for the Acheron minor human race)

Adventures/Worlds

- Adv 8 - Prison Planet (world of Newcomb)
- Adv 9 - Nomads of the World Ocean (world of Bellerophon)
- Adv 11 - Murder on Arc. Station (worlds of Arcturus, Heraklion, Scaramouche)
- Adv 13 - Signal GK (worlds of Scandia, Ochre, Cymbeline, UFC library entry)
- Dbl Adv 3 - Argon Gambit / Death Station (worlds Janosz, Gadden, Sol.Hypoth)
- Dbl Adv 4 - Marooned / Marooned Alone (world of Pagliacci)
- JTAS #15 - Azun, the world.

What's Original?

What have I added to fill in the gaps or add fluff?

- Governmental descriptions of Dingir and Easter. Dingir I made very militaristic, based on its history as a naval depot and headquarters of the Terran fleet. I saw a lack of true Traveller-esque nobles in Dingir and Old Earth. Easter thus became a government of nobles, which isn't too outlandish due to most worlds of the Easter Concord being once Vilani.
- A very small handful of new corporations.
- The gear, vehicles, and starcraft. Nothing created before was around during this place and time period except the Birdsong modular ship and Hero-class free trader.

Library Data: Alphabetical library entries that apply to the Solomai Rim or adjacent areas during this periods. Most from other sources, some new. Some data here is duplicated in other chapters (such as the Old Earth Union detailed in organizations), but the library entry will be just a paragraph at most.
